Tell FA. if he thinks that is any doubt. As it is FA I agree we had better make the appt. for six months in the first instance.

4/4

The telegram may issue.

As Mr. Edmonds has been already granted more than 6 months leave, it would seem to be an evasion of rule if we appoint an officer for 6 months under Rule 58 (b), and then apply for sanction of the Government of India for the last month of the leave.

If Mr. Edmonds can cut down his leave to 6 months, there would be no objection to the Resident exercising his powers under the rule quoted above. He can apply for extension, if necessary, and then we may ask the Government of India for the necessary sanction.

But there seems to be no reason why the Government of India should not sanction the post for 7 months, as the leave is due to Mr. Edmonds under the agreement and a substitute is essential. The Government of India are being told that we tried to get an officer from Madras without success.

Under the Agreement with the Secretary of State Mr. Edmonds was eligible for 7 months' leave on 7-4-1932 as certified by the Accountant General, Madras. This leave he could have taken at any time he choosed, irrespective of whether his pay was subject to 10% cut or not.

The liability of the Government of India to meet his leave salary and to pay for his substitute remains always. It appears therefore that we cannot tell the Government of India that they have lost Rs.359½/- by refusing to exempt Mr. Edmonds from 10% cut.

The extra cost of Rs.359½/- has been checked and found correct.

When leave is granted, it always means extra cost, and presumably, Government of India were not unaware that their refusal to excuse Mr. Edmonds from the 10% cut meant extra expenditure. They were perhaps afraid of creating an inconvenient precedent if an exception was made in Mr. Edmonds' case.
